3. To attend individual exam, select the option in the online registration form
4. To ensure quick check-in and on time start of event. An additional fee of $20 may be assessed per church for additions and removals of participants on the day of the event
5. Registration Fees are due the day of the event at check-in time. We accept cash or checks. Please make checks payable to "St. George Coptic Church"

Individual Multiple Choice Exam:

1. Participants in team competition can also take an individual exam
2. This exam is administered on the day of the competition and does not overlap with team event so participants can attend both
3. This exam is open to all participating churches
4. This exam has multiple choice questions from the books at each competing level (Junior High, High School, College)
5. There will be 1st, 2nd, 3rd place winners at each level: Junior High, High School and College
6. Winners will be announced at the end of the day along with the Team competition announcements
7. Winners will receive an individual award

Team Competition:

1. This is a team competition in which a group of participants will be scored as a team
2. There are three age levels of team competitions: Junior High, High School, College. See group definitions above for a definition of each level
3. Each church can register up to two teams at each age level
4. Each team can have a minimum of 3 (new in 2017)
5. 3 to 8 individuals can sit in an exam. Team members can substitute in and out after (not during) an exam (new in 2017)
6. If a Church chooses to register 2 teams, their first team must reach 17 participant before forming a second team. Optionally, at 17 participants the church can split the participants into two teams

7. A registration form must be completed for each team
8. After registration deadline, no participants will be allowed to switch from one team to another.
9. Once the registration is completed and submitted, it is final and no change will take place there after. Some rare exception may apply - decided by administration committee
10. Each team will be asked one question from each book and scored based on their answer
11. In Round 1, Round 2, Round of 16 each team is allowed 3 minutes to discuss and 4 minutes to answer (same as prior years). In higher rounds: 4 minutes to discuss and 5 minutes to answer (new in 2017)
12. only ONE team member can answer a question. No discussion or help from other team members, no exceptions. It can be a different team member for each question.
13. No study notes, books or cell phones are allowed during the exam. Once exam begins, all these items must be removed from the area and all cell phones turned off and stowed away. No exceptions

Rounds and Exams:

Note: Exception rulings can be made by the administration committee to ensure event continuity

1. Teams are divided into groups
2. Teams in a group compete with each other during the first round to determine the ranking within the group
3. Exams are held one following the other
4. The first round includes 3 to 4 exam
5. Teams will compete at least twice in the first round to determine which teams advance
6. There are typically five rounds: Round 1, Round of 16, Quarter Finals, Semi-Finals, Finals. However, depending on the number of teams and other factors deemed by the administration committee, some rounds maybe skipped or added
7. Winners from one round advance to the next up to the finals
8. In the first round: match winner receive 3 points, loser receives 0 points, in a tie both teams receive 1 point.
9. To determine which teams advance from Round 1 to the next round, teams are ranked by these measures: their rank in their group, their total points in round 1 and their accumulated score in round 1. These measures are weighed by the spiritual festivity administration to determine the top teams to advance to the next round
10. Higher rounds (Quarter Finals, Semi-Finals and Finals) are elimination rounds, one team must emerge as a winner, ties are settled with a tie breaker question that is selected randomly from one book. The winning team advances to next round.

Judges:

1. There will be 3 judges per match
2. Each church provides at least two qualified judges (e.g. Priest or Youth Servant) to help judge and will be judging for at least the first half of the day 10am-5pm.
3. Each judge must have read or taught all books for the level they will be judging
4. Judges must be at least 25 years of age. Some exceptions may apply
5. Judges will not speak or comment on participating teams throughout the event
6. Judges will be fair and unbiased towards one team or another
7. Judges are assigned to groups where their own church teams are not competing

8. Judges shall not give any feedback to teams during exam (no nodding, "great answer", "missing answer", "are you done?", "more to add?", etc...)
9. Judges shall not hint or help either team during exam
10. Judges shall not disclose individual scores or answers during or after exam
11. Judges will ask question to church "A" hand copy of the question, then same for church "B". Church "A" answers first then Church "B" answers. Reverse for next question
12. All team discussions stop once a team begins to answer
13. No discussion between judges during exam, only at end when totaling of scores
14. Judges shall not use any resources to score other than the answer written on sheet (no Bible, no Books, etc...)
15. No more than a 10 point difference between the three judges on each question
16. If the difference is more than 10 points, the judges should discuss among themselves and reconcile the difference to 10 points or less
17. The average points are computed and the final score and winner announced. The average number of points is to be rounded to the nearest whole number
18. Before announcing the final score at the end of the match, the judges will review among themselves the scores given for each question. The scores are subject to change if a mistake was made in calculating the final scores
19. Judges will announce the scores and the winners of the exams except for final and 3rd & 4th place exams.
20. The winners of the final and 3rd and 4th place exams are not announced until the end of the awards ceremony. Monitors and judges should not share the result of the final and 3rd and 4th places.
21. Exam questions are balanced and reviewed by many individual to ensure fairness and quality
22. Judge decisions are final - no exceptions

Scoring:

Note: Exception rulings can be made by the administration committee to ensure event continuity

1. The maximum number of points for each question is 25 points
2. Each part of the answer will be given a point breakout, which is indicated on the judges' copy of the exams. As the answer is given, the judge gives points to individual parts of the answer using the point breakout
3. Each judge should mark the answers on the test sheet to indicate the answers given by each church and justify the score given to each question. Also marks parts that were missed from the answer. Judges should round scores to the nearest whole number
4. Each judge scores each answer separately
5. At the end of the match, the average of the scores from all 3 judges is used as the team's final score
6. The average must be rounded to the nearest whole number
7. If the final score is identical, the judges declare a tie.
8. Judges shall give completed scoring sheets to the room monitor at the end of the match
9. In tiebreakers: One tiebreaker question would be asked at a time (for each team). A team only has to win by at least 1 point for a tiebreaker question. Scores are rounded to the nearest whole number.
10. If there is any dispute during a round, the representative from the church with the dispute will discuss it with the room monitor without interrupting the exam and will submit a written complaint

Rule breaking:

1. During exam, once discussion time is over, no further discussion by either team is allowed
2. Only ONE team member can answer a question. No discussion or help from other team members, no exceptions
3. Any study notes, pens, phones used during the exam will be considered a violation of the rules regardless of the intent
4. Warnings will be given prior to exam start.
5. During exam, any rule breaking or cheating will result in 25 points automatic deduction without prior warning. The individual with the violation will be removed from the rest of the competition
6. Any individual caught cheating during a multiple choice exam will be disqualified from the exam and asked to leave the exam
7. These and other disciplinary actions will be enforced at the discretion of the room monitor

Photography, Audio & Video recording:

1. No photography, Audio/Video recording during the rounds. Only assigned event administrators can take photos, record audio or video during the rounds.
2. Photography or Audio/Video recording is only allowed during the breaks and at the very end of the day during the awards ceremony
3. Anyone other than event administrators using a camera during the rounds will be asked to turn off the device or leave the room. No exceptions allowed.
